

Travel Guide From Airport T3 To Wuke Hotel

All international flights will arrive at the Beijing Capital International Airport Terminal 3. There are two approaches to go from T3 to the Beijing Wuke Hotel, which is inside AMSS. On the following map, we highlight the hotel and AMSS together with several other places, including where the airport shuttle bus stops.

Approach I. Take a taxi. In T3, take an elevator or escalator to B1. There you will see lines for taxis. You can show the following to the driver:

Please take me the Beijing Wuke Hotel.
请送我去北四环保福寺桥“物科宾馆”。

Taxi fare is about 100RMB (or 16USD) depending on the traffic situation and time when you take it.

Approach II. Take a shuttle bus. In T3, take an elevator or escalator to 1F. There you can buy tickets and take buses. You should get a full ticket (30RMB) of Line No.5 (Zhongguancun Line) and go to the Zhongguancun stop.

Note: There is a small complication. In the daytime, the bus will go to the bus terminal at the last stop (Zhongguancun). Since this is the last stop, you will not miss it. In the evening, on the other hand, the bus will stop at a bus stop and then continue to the Tsinghua University. But it should be easy to tell that you arrived at the right stop because that is the FIRST stop when it is an actual bus stop (all the other stops are just by the road side). You can show the direction on the previous page to the bus driver to confirm. The following two maps show the directions to walk from the day stop (night stop) to the hotel. You can see these two stops are very close to each other.

This line No.5 stops at the following locations (there are announcement in English on the buses):

1. T3
2. T2/T1
3. Wanghe Bridge (望和桥)
4. Xiao Ying (小营/惠新西街)
5. Asian Games Bridge (亚运村/安慧桥)
6. Xue Yuan Bridge (学院桥)
7. Zhongguancun (中关村)
